What's New

The rules for multiple support agreements still apply to claiming an exemption for a qualifying relative, but they no longer apply to claiming an exemption for a qualifying child. For the definitions of "qualifying relative" and "qualifying child," see Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 2120 to:

- Identify each other eligible person (see below) who paid over 10% of the support of a qualifying relative whom you are claiming as a dependent, and
- Indicate that you have a signed statement from each other eligible person waiving his or her right to claim that qualifying relative as a dependent.

An eligible person is someone who could have claimed a qualifying relative as a dependent except that he or she did not pay over half of that person's support.

If there are more than four other eligible persons, attach a statement to your return with the required information.

Who Can Claim the Qualifying Relative

Generally, to claim a qualifying relative as a dependent, you must pay over half of that person's support. However, even if you did not meet this support test, you may be able to claim him or her as a dependent if all five of the following apply.

1. You and one or more other eligible person(s) (see above) together paid over half of that person's support.
2. You paid over 10% of the support.
3. No one alone paid over half of that person's support.
4. The other dependency tests are met. See Step 4, Qualifying Relative Dependent in the Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions.
5. Each other eligible person who paid over 10% of the support agrees not to claim that person as a dependent by giving you a signed statement. See Signed Statement on this page.

Note. To find out what is included in support, see Pub. 501.

Signed Statement

You must have received, from each other eligible person listed above, a signed statement waiving his or her right to claim the qualifying relative as a dependent for the calendar year indicated on this form. The statement must include:

- The calendar year the waiver applies to,
- The name of the qualifying relative the eligible person helped to support, and
- The eligible person's name, address, and social security number.

Do not file the signed statement with your return. But you must keep it for your records and be prepared to furnish it and any other information necessary to show that you qualify to claim the qualifying relative as your dependent.

Additional Information

See Pub. 501 for details.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Internal Revenue Code section 6103.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is: Recordkeeping, 6 minutes; Learning about the law or the form, 4 minutes; Preparing the form, 7 minutes; and Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS, 13 minutes.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the Instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A.
